SUMMARY

I like what is possible with coding. I am a Web Developer based out of Dallas TX. I am always striving to better myself and have an open mind towards learning how to do what I already know differently. I enjoy problem solving, give me a rubix cube, I will solve it! :)

EDUCATION

DevMountain
While working as a tech in Austin TX a friend showed me what he was doing with code, it blew my mind, I was hooked. I looked for a coding school and chose DevMountain. It accelerated my education and further pushed me into the world of coding.
